THE INEXPRESSIBLE MYSTERY

The God of the universe is mysterious. Science has not been able to solve the mystery of how the universe came into being or explain exactly what continues to give it creative energy and masterful design. No religion asserts that it has found words to name fully the ineffable mystery of God, for no matter what name we use, God always transcends our limited ability to understand. God is a mystery to be believed, not known. And yet, we Christians believe that our name for God best expresses that inexpressible mystery: God is the Most Holy Trinity of three persons united in a communion of love, pouring forth that creative, saving, sanctifying love into the world. Today's scriptures celebrate the mystery of the Trinity and give us clues for living that mystery in our lives.

Dear friends -

At the end of this month, I will complete my second year as your pastor. During this time, I have been busy about many things in this very active community! One of my regrets is that of not being able to spend more informal time with you, just trading stories and sharing food. As summer approaches, evenings are less busy and I would love to spend as many of them as possible visiting the homes of our parishioners. So - if you have a free hour some evening, an extra kolache in the oven, or tortilla on the comal, please call. I'd love to spend some "down-time" with you and with your family! -- Fr. Paul

Congratulations to John and Bernadette Klapuch, who have completed their two-year Lay Ministry Institute (LMI) Program at Oblate School of Theology in San Antonio! LMI is an excellent program of formation in lay ministry, exposing its participants to some of the best of theology and faith formation that Oblate has to offer. John and Berny's trips to San Antonio have not concluded, since John will continue his studies and spiritual preparation for three more years in preparation to become a deacon. Please remember in prayer Carney Zambrano, and Sam and Janie Melchor, who are now at the half-way point of the LMI program. I highly recommend this program which is open to all; call me for more information! -- Fr. Paul

Queridos amigos -

Al terminar este mes, habrá completado mi segundo año como su párroco. ¡En este tiempo, he estado ocupado con muchas cosas en esta comunidad muy activa! Una lastima es la de no poder pasar mas tiempo de descanso con ustedes, simplemente visitando y compartiendo alimento. Al acercarse el varano, las tardes son menos ocupados y quisiera pasar tiempo visitando las casas de nuestros parroquianos. Por eso - si tenga usted una hora libre en la tarde, y un panecito extra en el horno y tortilla en el comal, ¡llámeme! Me gustaría pasar tiempo con usted y con su familia! -- Padre Paul Felicidades a John y Bernadette Klapuch, que acaban de completar el Lay Ministry Institute, un programa de formación de adultos de dos años en Oblate School of Theology en San Antonio. LMI es un programa excelente de formación en el ministerio laico, presentando lo mejor de la teología y formación espiritual que ese colegio puede ofrecer. Los viajes de John y Berny a San Antonio no han terminado, porque John continuará sus estudios y preparación espiritual por tres años mas en preparación para el diaconado. Recuerden en su oración Carney Zambrano, y Sam y Janie Melchor, que han completado un año del programa de LMI. Le programa está abierto a todos los que quieren participar; llame a la oficina para mas información.
