“Church Lighting”

I have been notified by our contractor Johnnie Freisenhahn (T & F Construction Co.) that our lights which have been ordered are being delayed for shipment by the manufacturer for another 30 days. I know this is disappointing because we were told we would have the lights installed by October 31st. So it looks like we will have to wait for a while longer. I ask that you please be patient with Johnnie and me, we are checking each day with the manufacturer to make sure there will be no more delays. As soon as the lights arrive, Johnnie will be here to install them.

Thank You!
Marvin Siegel, Building Board Chairman

NO COMPARISONS

How many times have we read or heard about someone who's gotten into trouble—maybe even fired from a job—because of a brush with the law? While our “Christian” minds tell us to be sorry and even pray for the person, a little voice inside our heads may also be saying, “I’m glad I would never do anything like that.”

And perhaps we wouldn't. But are there some things we do that are still not pleasing in God's eyes? Today's readings caution us not to look so intently at someone else's wrongdoing that we overlook our own weaknesses and shortcomings. When we measure ourselves against the worst people we can think of, we come out looking pretty good. There is a danger, however, in using someone else's behavior as a way of reflecting our own goodness.
